

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The Galton Troupe at the Theatre Comique.
In spite of the violent rain storm which set in at the most unpropitious moment, the Theatre Comique was crowded last evening on the occasion of the return of Miss Susan Galton and her troupe. Although she has appeared in this city under rather discouraging circumstances, which only real artistic ability could surmount, Miss Galton has succeeded in winning the regards of the public, and has established herself as one of the most popular actresses of the day. Her appearance on the stage last evening was greeted by applause so hearty as to elicit a few words expressive of her pleasure at being among her old friends once more and throughout the performance the audience testified in a marked manner to their appreciation of her efforts. The other members of the troupe received a cordial welcome, and we hope that they are now convinced that the Theatre Comique is the proper place for them, and that they will consent to remain there permanently, and give us a series of light, pretty musical entertainments, such as persons of refinement and taste can enjoy without fear of being offended by vulgarity or coarseness of any kind. The weakness of Miss Galton's support is not so apparent at this house as it is in a larger establishment, and the operettas in which she first achieved success in this city are so well adapted to the strength of her company and so acceptable to the public, that she will do well to adhere to them or to works of a similar character. Last evening Offenbach's operetta of "66" and Lisken and Fritzchen were performed very creditably, and Miss Galton's singing and acting were as charming as ever. Mr. Winfield, too, appeared to advantage in these pieces, as the music is not beyond his range, and some excellent opportunities for good comic acting are afforded.

The City Amusements.
At the Academy of Music Hervey's opera of L'Espre Creux will be performed this evening. This is a charming work, entirely unobjectionable in its plot and incidents, and the music is much above the usual opera-house standard.

To-morrow evening Genevieve de Brabant will be performed for the last time.
On Friday Mr. George Hood will have a benefit, when La Grande Duchesse de Gerolstein will be given for the first time by this troupe.

At the Theatre Comique, the pantomime, which will have a farewell benefit this evening, The Field of the Cloth of Gold and the amusing pantomime of Mons. Deschamps will be given. Hernandez is a remarkable performer in his line, and we hope he will have a full house.

At the Walnut the burlesque of The Female Party Truise and the drama of Miriam's Crime will be performed this evening.

On Friday Mr. J. H. Hackett will appear as "Falsad" in The Merry Wives of Windsor.

At the Arch House will appear this evening as "Little Nell" and the "Marchioness," in John Bromham's dramatization of The Old Curiosity Shop.

At the Theatre Comique Miss Susan Galton and troupe will appear this evening in "66" and Lisken and Fritzchen.

At the American an attractive variety entertainment will be given this evening.

This Germania Orchestra will give a public rehearsal at Horticultural Hall this afternoon.

FAIR FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE HOMOEOPATHIC HOSPITAL.—Measures for the permanent establishment of a Homoeopathic Hospital in Philadelphia being now inaugurated under the most favorable auspices, the ladies and others interested in the fair to be held next autumn for its benefit, are earnestly requested to use all their influence, as well as personal effort, to make it a complete success.

Contributions of useful and fancy articles of every description may be collected as fast as convenient, and provision will be made for the storage of all bulky packages. Donations of money, goods, etc., are solicited.

Ladies intending to co-operate are requested to notify the secretary at their earliest convenience, in advance of the formation of circles. Blank books, properly attended, will be furnished for the use of the collectors of money.

A Children's Department and Children's Tables at the fair are an intended feature.

Physicians who see this circular, and all other benevolent persons to whom appeals may be made, will, we doubt not, promote the formation of the "circles" herein proposed, and further lend to the enterprise the weight of their influence.

The present organization is temporary, and whenever "circles" are sufficiently numerous an election for permanent officers will be called.

Vice-President, pro tem.—Mrs. J. B. MORRISHEAD, No. 1625 Walnut street.

Secretary, pro tem.—Mrs. KOWIN GIBBLE, No. 125 South Nineteenth street.

SOONER OR LATER a neglected cold will develop a constant Cough, Shortness of Breath, Failing Strength, and Wasting of Flesh—the avowed couriers of Consumption.

In some instances the same cause will produce Bronchitis, a disease of the branches of the windpipe. In all affections of the Pulmonary Organs, as well as in Bronchial Affections, JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT is both a palliative and a curative, as the testimony of thousands, and its world-wide reputation attests—while in Coughs and Colds it acts speedily, and when taken according to directions, promptly removes them. Why not give this standard remedy an immediate trial? Sold by all Druggists.

SPEER'S WINE BITTERS.—R. R. Sisson, M. D., of New Bedford, Mass., says of Speer's Wine, "I have used Speer's Wine to my entire satisfaction, and believe it to be superior to all wine which have been so much used by the profession." His Bitters are made of the wine made bitter by Pervian Bark, Wild Cherry Bark, Calamus, Ginger, Snake Root, etc., in daily use by the medical faculty. Their base is pure wine. Sold by druggists.
